Model Bambi Northwood Blyth was caught during a wardrobe change - you would think that they would have a place where folks could change but...I'm glad they don't.

Aww, isn't this cute? Paris Hilton posed with her former assistant Kim Kardashian. When Kim approached Paris for a photo it's rumored that Paris said "I'm sorry, which one are you again? I don't recognize your face." Really?

This was listed on a site as a nip slip. It looks to me as if Chanel West Coast is pulling the front of her swimsuit and taking a selfie but you know that we are on this whole false news shit.

Josie Canseco has to be one of the sexiest creatures on the planet.

Why is Kiki Palmer wearing all of these super slutty outfits all of sudden?

That said, I wish that denim bra would have slid an inch...maybe an inch and a quarter to the left.

Marisa Papen has a $50 nude calendar out in support of the ocean. Proceeds from the sales of the calendar sales also goes to Mission Blue, an initiative of the Sylvia Earle Alliance (S.E.A.) to ignite public support for the protection of Hope Spots — "special places that are vital to the health of the ocean, the blue heart of our planet," according to Marisa.

What the hell is wrong with these guys? Kylie Jenner IS NOT a Kardashian. You might grab that ass but it's not going to be a handful of CERTIFIED Kardashian ass.

Joanna Krupa looks stunning in this very sexy bikini. I couldn't help but notice that her suit includes a camel toe - lovely!

Damn, Damn, Damn Ashley Graham - she's got curves in all the right places. These curves are brought to u courtesy of the video short Who Framed Ashley Graham directed by Phil Poynter...Damn! Mmmm, like biscuits and gravy!

The zombie apocalypse won't take long.

A new article in a peer-reviewed student journal finds that the zombie hordes would take Earth's population down to a mere 273 survivors in 100 days.

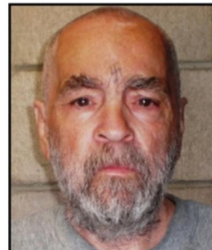

The paper, published in the University of Leicester's Journal of Physics Special Topics, was a fanciful use of the so-called SIR model, which is used in epidemiology to simulate how diseases spread over time. It's not the first time zombies have been used as a public health metaphor. In December 2015, for example, the British medical journal The Lancet published a tongue-in-cheek paper titled "Zombie infections: epidemiology, treatment, and prevention." And a viral blog post from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention urged zombie-apocalypse preparations as a metaphor for real-life disaster preparedness.

In the new analysis, the University of Leicester undergraduates assumed that each zombie would have 90 percent success at finding and infecting one human per day — a rate that would make the zombie virus twice as contagious as the Black Death, the plague that devastated Europe in the 1300s.

Charles Manson was hospitalized for a serious medical condition recently. There are two things about this story that gave me concern. First, they called Manson a mass murderer. Let's be realistic, Manson never actually killed anyone. Second, they continue to show photos of Manson from the past instead of what he really looks like. Don't get me wrong but with the new focus on false news, I'm willing to bet that Manson would be found of the lesser charge of 2nd degree murder in today's court.

As a Big 10 fan who is very critical of Nick Saban and the SEC, I loved this story. While discussing the upcoming national championship game, Simmons had the ultimate hot take on Nick Saban, who is widely considered one of the greatest coaches in college football history.

"He's a coward, he left the NFL. He's a coward," Simmons said on his podcast. "You want to compete against the best. The best coaches aren't in college, they're in professional football. He had a chance to go head-

-to-head against Bill Belichick, the greatest coach of all-time. He didn't get the quarterback he wanted in Miami, and, like a coward, he went back to college, where he stays and just beats up on all these inferior college coaches. Congratulations. He's the guy who plays Madden on rookie level winning the Super Bowl. Come to the NFL, let's see what kind of coach he is. When he plays golf does he play from the pink tees? Come to the NFL, let's see how good you are. 'Oh I didn't get Drew Brees in Miami, I'm going back to college. I'm just gonna cherry pick all the best players in the country because I'm the head coach at Alabama.'"

Story of the Month

Can someone please explain to me how our intelligence community can identify hacking used to aide in the election of Donald Trump AND more than 50 Electoral College members who voted for Donald Trump were ineligible to serve as presidential electors because they did not live in the congressional districts they represented or held elective office in states legally barring dual officeholders and there isn't a single person doing a damn thing about it? "Trump's ascension to the presidency is completely illegitimate," said Ryan Clayton of Americans Take Action. "It's not just Russians hacking our democracy. It's not just voter suppression at unprecedented levels. It is also [that] there are Republicans illegally casting ballots in the Electoral College, and in a sufficient number that the results of the Electoral College proceedings are illegitimate as well." - Why is the media still calling this and reporting on this as if this man is a legitimate president elect?

SUSAN LYNN KIGER - PLAYMATE OF THE MONTH JANUARY 1977

In 1977, Susan had the all-American girl next door...only she wasn't the girl next door. She is the only Playmate to appear in an adult film before becoming a Playmate.

The flick was titled Deadly Love and from what I watched, she is great at performing oral sex.

After her feature in the magazine Susan left porn for television and low budget films. The only notable film was H.O.T.S. where Susan plays Honey Shayne. You get a chance to see her breast at the minute and a half mark...just kidding. I'm not Mr. Skin but I can tell you that the flick has a lot of T&A.

TFM gives a big YOU ARE SEXY to Susan Lynn Kiger!

SHAUNA SANDS

Now, what would you say Shauna is doing with her male companion - on the beach - in broad daylight?

If you said having sex, you are correct sir!

Of course this is nothing new for Shauna, she has a porn out with Vivid titled Shauna Exposed - here's a scene for the our online readers.

Don't be too disappointed with her "sex tape". I've never seen a more professional sex tape. You have to notice that Shauna keeps looking at the camera, not to mention it's obvious that the guy isn't holding the camera MOST OF THE TIME.

That said whoever caught this action on the beach should have shot video, it would have been more realistic than her sex tape.

Top Floor Magazine answers the questions submitted to the Playboy Advisor

How long does it take to get over a relationship? I dated a girl for four months and everything was perfect. She said she could see us married and that she would be stupid to ever leave. Then, out of the blue, she dumped me. It was an intense relationship, which I've been told is quicker to fizzle. But that doesn't make me feel any better. - C.A., St. Louis, Missouri

This is an easy one. Let me start by saying that you can never trust a female. She may say things like she could see you as her future husband until her future husband comes along. That's the funny thing about women, they have this thing about pleasing themselves. They want emotional and financial comfort - at least most of them do. The others who get involved with a man at his lowest are thinking that they can build him up or change him. They have this unrealistic view of life. They think that in some cases they can actually mold the man into something they want. Sometimes, they actually succeed and create a really great man but in others they never leave the trailer park. The best thing for you to do is get back on that dating horse and ride it until you find the one that fits you and your lifestyle. To take a line from Chris Rock - if you smoke crack she has to be a crackhead too. Once you get back on that horse and a woman responds to you in a positive way, you'll start to feel better about yourself and forget about that bitch that dumped you.

For the past year I have been having erections in public at inappropriate times, usually when I see a woman dressed in a revealing way. This makes it difficult to walk, and I'm afraid people will think I'm a pervert. I haven't had sex in a year but I've tried masturbating more, and it doesn't help. Should I see a doctor? - J.P., San Francisco, California

I don't think that you need to see a doctor unless it's a sex therapist, I hear they do some really sexy things. Here's the deal, this is something that is completely normal, especially for a young man. If it didn't happen, that's when you need to be asking about a doctor. I can't tell you that it's ever going to stop. I once asked an older gentleman that I worked with if it ever goes away. His answer was it would stop in my mid forties, well that was bullshit. Some guys just have a hunger for sex and an appreciation for the female body - they are God's most fabulous creation. So we get excited from time to time especially when the lady is attractive and has a nice shape. Newsflash, it's unlikely that the erections will stop once you get married. I suggest that you accept it and buy baggier clothing or tighter underwear. If that doesn't work, I sometime focus on Peyton Manning (don't know why) or Mickey Mouse and that seems to solve the problem...Omaha!

We want to hear from our readers!

If you have a reasonable question about sex or relationships we would be more than happy to answer it.

In the News

California's iconic "pioneer cabin", a 137 year old living sequoia tree fell and shattered during a winter storm.

Donald Trump claimed that D.C.'s dress shops are sold out of inaugural gowns. Definitely not, said Martha Slagle, vice president and general manager of the Neiman Marcus in Friendship Heights. If a ball attendee Famed Actress Meryl Streep voiced her opinion on president elect Donald Trump during her acceptance speech for the Cecil B. DeMille - an honorary Golden Globe Award bestowed by the Hollywood Foreign Press Association for outstanding contributions to the world of entertainment.

When Trump was shown apparently mocking a disabled reporter: "There was nothing good about it, but it did its job," she said. "It kind of broke my heart when I saw it, and I still can't get it out my head because it wasn't in a movie, it was in real life. That instinct to humiliate when it's modeled by someone in a public platform, it filters down into everyone's life because it gives permission for others to do the same. ... Disrespect invites disrespect. Violence invites violence. When the powerful use their position to bully others we all lose."

Trump responded by tweeting that Meryl Streep was an "overrated" actress.

Opinion

After the election of Donald Trump I was reminded that there were three branches of government and that Trump was not King. It left me thinking that there was a possibility that as with other Presidents, it was possible that what Trump does in the White House may have little or no impact on my life.

However, when you have a president that tweets out comments like...

- I have never seen a thin person drinking Diet Coke.
- @ariannahuff is unattractive both inside and out. I fully understand why her former husband left her for a man- he made a good decision. - Tweet to Arianna Huffington, founder of the Huffington Post
- Pervert alert. @RepWeiner is back on twitter. All girls under the age of 18, block him immediately. - Tweet to former Congressman Anthony Weiner
- "Meryl Streep, one of the most over-rated actresses in Hollywood, doesn't know me but attacked last night at the Golden Globes. She is a Hillary flunky who lost big.

I haven't said this about any other president but then we haven't a potus that tweets insults to whomever/whenever BUT What a Bitch!

PATRIOTS DAY

In the aftermath of an unspeakable attack, Police Sergeant Tommy Saunders (Mark Wahlberg) joins courageous survivors, first responders and investigators in a race against the clock to hunt down the bombers before they strike again.

Weaving together the stories of Special Agent Richard DesLauriers (Kevin Bacon), Police Commissioner Ed Davis (John Goodman), Sergeant Jeffrey Pugliese (J.K. Simmons) and nurse Carol Saunders (Michelle Monaghan) this visceral and unflinching chronicle captures the suspense of one of the most sophisticated man-hunts in law enforcement history and celebrates the strength of the people of Boston.

IN THEATRES

Collateral Beauty

When a successful New York advertising executive suffers a great tragedy he retreats from life. While his concerned friends try desperately to reconnect with him, he seeks answers from the universe by writing letters to Love, Time and Death. But it's not until his notes bring unexpected personal responses that he begins to understand how these constants interlock in a life fully lived, and how even the deepest loss can reveal moments of meaning and beauty.

Bye Bye Man

A horror-thriller that exposes the evil behind the most unspeakable acts committed by man. When three college friends stumble upon the horrific origins of the Bye Bye Man, they discover that there is only one way to avoid his curse: don't think it, don't say it. But once the Bye Bye Man gets inside your head, he takes control. Is there a way to survive his possession?

Hidden Figures

Hidden Figures is the incredible untold story of Katherine Johnson (Taraji P. Henson), Dorothy Vaughan (Octavia Spencer) and Mary Jackson (Janelle Monae)—brilliant African-American women working at NASA, who served as the brains behind one of the greatest operations in history: the launch of astronaut John Glenn into orbit, a stunning achievement that restored the nation's confidence, turned around the Space Race, and galvanized the world. The visionary trio crossed all gender and race lines to inspire generations to dream big.

Rats

The film primarily focuses on rat infestations and exterminations, including methods such as night-patrol teams in Mumbai snapping rats' necks and the practice of rat-baiting in England. Much of the documentary has been considered a detailing of "the 'war' against rats", featuring "bashing, slicing, dissecting and poisoning". The director also journeys to the Karni Mata Temple in Rajasthan, India, where over 35,000 black rats are revered by devotees who believe them to be reincarnated human beings.

Probably one of disturbing films ever made without actual violence.

I don't want to give too much away but when they dissected one of the rats that they had caught in a trap, they found a fly larvae attached to the rat that had grown to the size of a thumb. They removed the larvae and it moved along a the surface that they placed it on actually releasing excrement with every movement.

Another rat had lungs full of some type of worm that carries the ebola virus. Gross, horrific and informative.

Great film. Available on Netflix

Escorts

Am I the only one who thinks that the title suggest a certain type of film? What I was expecting was something like HBO's Bunny Ranch and what I got was a few shots of badly done fake tits, moaning behind a closed door and a couple of UK call girls that have a lot of problems.

Windy City - Alison Krauss

"I've never worked less on a record that took so long," jokes Krauss in an interview with Rolling Stone magazine. Despite her self proclaimed lack of work, it is definitely worth the wait. The first single Losing You, shows off her powerful vocals. Windy City is Krauss's first solo album in 17 years, the type of lay off that usually destroys a career. However, with the help Nashville veteran Buddy Cannon. According to Krauss "I've worked with Buddy through the years, I've found that my 'why' got attached to him when I work for him. He really makes me want to do a good job."

Windy City is a mix of Bluegrass, Country and a few standards that you will enjoy.

Gissy Doll

The only thing that I can say for certain is that it was almost impossible to find any information on Gissy. She is featured on Maxim's website as a model of the day and I guess she used to work at a strip club (it may have been Starlets) in Queens.

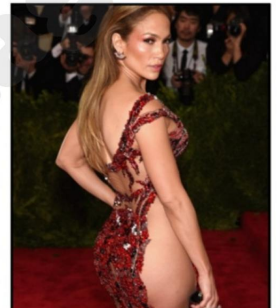

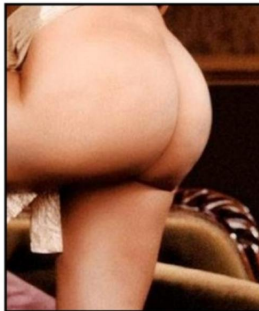

The only other thing that we were able to uncover was a few before and after photos and a site where a few folks are saying that the doctor worked miracles on her.

I can't believe that a model this hot (obviously she is modeling) doesn't have her own website, manager, videos, youtube etc;

Remembering 2016

When I think back on 2016 there are two things that I will not forget - A crazy ass election and the number of celebrities from my childhood that passed away.

The list was long, so long that it made me question my own longevity.

- Prince
- Muhammed Ali
- David Bowie
- George Michael
- Gene Wilder
- Dan Grizzley Adams Haggerty
- Vanity
- Natalie Cole
- Frank Sinatra Jr.
- Phife Dog
- Glenn Frye
- Abe Vigoda

- Garry Shandling
- Patty Duke
- Janet Reno
- Merle Haggard
- Joanie "Chyna" Laurer
- Morley Safer
- Miss Cleo
- Arnold Palmer
- US Political System
- Florence Henderson
- Fidel Castro
- Alan Thicke
- Pat Harrington
- Alan Rickman
- Nancy Reagan
- Tony Burton
- Joe Santos
- Ken Howard
- Gary Marshall
- Ron Glass
- John Glenn
- Zsa Zsa Gabor
- Carrie Fisher
- Debbie Reynolds
- William Christopher

These are all of the folks that I grew up watching or listening to. I hate to use the word idols but if there was anyone I would apply that tag to it would have to be Ken Howard, Muhammed Ali and Prince.

I remember watching The White Shadow and as a young kid that was really inspiring. Then of course there was Ali who was more of an inspiration after his career than during and Prince was the one celebrity that I actually credit for changing my life and the person I am today.

They will all be missed!

Liar...Whiner...Puppet in Chief

By Billy Stevens

There were a lot of folks that tried to convince me, right after the election, that despite the fact that he Trump was bat shit crazy during the campaign, he would be okay now that he won.

Well, if you're not fucking scared now - you should be!

Let's start with the fact that Trump lost the popular vote by the largest margin in history.

Then, just like he did in the election, he is pulling his facts right out of his ass.

Congressman and well known civil rights activist John Lewis made headlines by claiming that Trump was not a "legitimate president."

Donald responded with a tweet -

Georgia's 5th congressional district, represented by John Lewis, is "in horrible shape and falling apart (not to mention crime infested)." - MOSTLY FALSE

PolitiFact National on Sunday, January 15th, 2017

Trump has also said that American's don't "care at all" about his tax returns...another lie!

Polls indicate that 60% of Americans would like to see his taxes.

Of course when you consider the list of lies he told during the campaign...

- President Obama Lied About His Birth Certificate

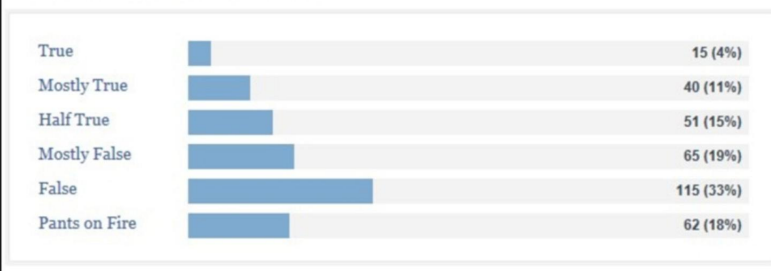

- Hillary Clinton Started Birtherism
- Obama Wears An 'Arabic' ring
- Obama Was Born 'Barry Soetero'
- Bill Ayers Wrote 'Dreams From My Father'
- Rafael Cruz Was Linked To The Kennedy Assassination
- Obama Founded ISIS
- Obama Is Arming ISIS
- Obama Supports Terrorists
- ISIS Tried To Attack Me!
- Muslims Celebrated 9/11 In New Jersey
- San Bernardino Attackers' Neighbors Knew Of Plot
- Christians Are Banned From Entering America

Yes, believe it or not (Trump supporters) every single one of these statements have been proven false by something called facts.

I'm not talking about Fox News facts, Fox has supported and refused to rebuke all of these statements, I'm talking actual facts.

When it comes to Trump and the truth, here's his scorecard -

The PolitiFact scorecard

He's telling the truth 15% of the time and either stretching the truth or flat out lying an astounding 85% of the time.

Russia

People who know what they're fucking talking about - not Sean Hannity or Bill O'Reilly - are shouting to the moon just how dangerous Trump's relationship with Russia can be to American interest.

The outgoing CIA director charged that Donald Trump lacks a full understanding of the threat Moscow poses to the United States, delivering a public lecture to the president-elect that further highlighted the bitter state of Trump's relations with American intelligence agencies.

"Now that he's going to have an opportunity to do something for our national security as opposed to talking and tweeting, he's going to have tremendous responsibility to make sure that U.S. and national security interests are protected," Brennan said on "Fox News Sunday," warning that the president-elect's impulsivity could be dangerous.

There was a twitter response from Trump (of course)...

"Oh really, Couldn't do much worse - just look at Syria (red line), Crimea, Ukraine and the build-up of Russian nukes," Trump said on Twitter. "Not good! Was this the leaker of Fake News?"

I'm not sure what he is talking about and I'm not sure he does either.

If you're still not scared...

There's information indicating that Russian intelligence had mounted a year long operation to co-opt or cultivate Trump and had gathered secret compromising material on Trump. They also alleged that Trump and his inner circle had accepted a regular flow of intelligence from the Kremlin.

I don't even want to get into the story about a Russian prostitute pissing on Trump during a romp in Moscow.

It's my understanding that the spy that produced the memos was hired by an anti-Trump organization.

Let's focus on what we know.

It was determined that Russia did interfere in our election. This resulted in President Obama issuing new sanctions on Russia.

Well...

Trump is planning to lift those sanctions. "If you get along and if Russia is really helping us, why would anybody have sanctions if somebody's doing some really great things?" he said in the interview.

China

The first misstep Trump took was his call from Taiwan.

There is this little thing called a one China policy and it fairly important considering that the U.S. owes China uh, what's that number again?

Oh yeah...$1.115 trillion!

More than a trillion dollars and this stupid motherfucker is trying to piss them off BEFORE he steps foot in to the Oval office.

China has warned that it's "seriously concerned" after President-elect Donald Trump questioned whether the United States should keep its long-standing position that Taiwan is part of "one China."

Trump has signaled a willingness to confront Beijing, and his latest comments in an interview with Fox News suggested that he won't hesitate to anger China until the country comes to the bargaining table on trade and North Korea.

China's response was measured but clear: co-operation with the US "would be out of the question" if Trump doesn't adhere to the 'one China' policy -- a cornerstone of bilateral relations since the establishment of diplomatic ties in the 1970s.

"I want to stress that the Taiwan question has a bearing on China's sovereignty and territorial integrity," Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesman Geng Shuang said.

Some of you may think, good for Trump or he's being tough on behalf of the American people.

Have you any of you seen the film Red Dawn? If you haven't, I suggest you do.

That shit could really happen as sure as Pearl Harbor was bombed.

We Americans get so caught up in the facade that we are the greatest country in the world and we are too blind to see that we are just as vulnerable as any other country, especially if we have an idiot at the helm.

China's active military, believe it or not, is almost double the size of the United States. We don't owe them a trillion dollars because we really like Chinese food.

They also have a nuclear arsenal. It's the second smallest of the five nuclear weapon states but it only takes one.

Is this a country that we really want to fuck with?

Even if Trump joins forces with Russia, we would still barely have the personnel to fuck with China.

Scared yet?

God forbid that Russia actually join forces with China or China comes knocking asking for their money.

Words matter and for a self-proclaimed user of the best words, Donald Trump is using a whole lot of ignorant ones when it comes to foreign affairs.

Healthcare

Trump will ask for a full repeal of Obamacare on day one.

Yeah!!!!

Except for the fact that a number of you Trump supporters are already enrolled in Obamacare without realizing it and when they repeal it 20 million Americans will lose -

- Cost assistance is available to individuals, families and small businesses through the Health Insurance Marketplace.
- Medicaid eligibility is expanded in 26 states to 138% of the federal poverty level giving millions of Americans access to healthcare.
- No annual or lifetime limits on healthcare.
- All major medical insurance is guaranteed issue, meaning you can't be denied coverage for any reason.
- You can't be charged more based on health status or gender.
- Insurance companies can't drop you when you are sick or for making a mistake on your application.
- You can't be denied coverage for pre-existing conditions.
- Young Adults can stay on their parent's plan until 26.
- A large improvement to women's health services, including many new free preventive treatments and screenings.
- Better care and protections for seniors.
- New preventative services at no-out-of-pocket costs.

I guess those of us lucky to have insurance will just have to go back to paying for EVERYONE who doesn't and goes to the emergency room or Urgent Care for treatment.

Which will cause our premiums to go up. Oh how I love to pay for FREEDOM!

For those of you who will lose their healthcare I guess it's back to -

Yep, that's right FREE MOBILE CLINICS!!!

They will be in your town twice a year so please try not to get sick or die before one is able make it to you. If you're lucky enough to survive long enough to be diagnosed with a major illness please don't forget to follow up in your local emergency room - those of us who are insured will pick up the tab.

I can't actually blame this one entirely on Donald Trump. The GOP lead House and Senate (who already have free GOLD FUCKING STAR healthcare for themselves and their immediate family - though I'm sure as member of Congress they can have an in-law thrown in there if needed) have already voted to start the repeal of The Affordable Care and Patient Protection Act.

The Press

Trump was dumb enough to ditch the press pool in favor of golf...this is as a president elect.

"He made a last-minute trip to Jupiter. We weren't aware and appreciate everyone's understanding. We are in the home stretch of this transition period and don't anticipate any additional situations like this between now and inauguration," Trump spokeswoman Stephanie Grisham told reporters. "We've really made an effort to provide as much access and comfort as possible over the past two weeks and are proud of the way we have all worked together."

Bullshit!

Billy Backwoods probably thinks this is a good idea.

Trump has made a real effort to make semi-legitimate news outlets look like second rate gossip columns or “fake news” like Fox News.

What Billy Backwoods probably doesn’t realize is this is part of a larger plan to make misinformation, information.

I don’t trust all media outlets, especially after they were irresponsible enough to “unknowingly” get Trump elected. They showed a complete lack of objectivity. Some networks (CNN) would run Trump’s incoherent rallies from start to finish.

Who wanted to be bothered with those boring Hillary rallies anyway, right?

CNN has since admitted that they were wrong for doing that but their apology comes a little late in the process, Trump won the election.

It’s hilarious that the network that helped to get Trump elected was the very one that he pointed out and refused to take questions from, accusing them of being fake news.

Trump has made a habit of ditching the press.

The White House Correspondents Association, group of journalists or correspondents usually stationed at the White House in Washington, D.C., to cover the President of the United States, White House events, and news briefings, called the practice “unacceptable.”

Little do they know that they may be packing up their gear and moving their shit out of the west wing.

Three senior Trump officials have told Esquire that the incoming administration is seriously considering a plan to evict the White House press corps from the White House press briefing room, where it’s been housed since the Nixon administration.

The potential relocation was motivated by the new administration wanting to “take back” the press room because the media is no longer neutral and has instead become “the opposition party” on account of how hostile they have been to Trump.

“I want ’em out of the building,” the official said.

Now, what amendment does that violate?

Hmm...Oh, the FIRST ONE!

Freedom of the press in the United States is protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution. This clause is generally understood as a means to prevent the government from interfering with the distribution of information and opinions.

But, fuck it - throw the press out of the west wing, Sean Hannity has to have a place to crash for the night and it would be way too obvious if they put him and his family up in the Lincoln bedroom for the next four years.

I don’t think Trump realizes that the press corp is as much for his protection as it is a source of information for the American people. Speculation can be a real bitch! Those folks have a job to do and if they don’t have a story to write with some REAL INFORMATION I can only guess what that will lead to.

Also, it’s nice to know where the President is at all times just in case something happens. Like...

Let’s just say that it’s important to know their location.

Wrap up

I really can’t believe that there isn’t someone that has the balls to put a stop to this travesty. Yes, I said travesty.

Trump is putting the lives of the American people in danger like a reckless truck driver on the highway. He’s just trying to get WHERE HE WANTS TO GO fuck everybody else.

It’s not like he’s going to suffer, he has the protection of that nice comfy, spacious cab to cushion the blow of an accident.

I have to agree with some of the pundits who have said that the up and coming presidency feels like knowing about 9/11 before it happens.

18 million people stayed home during the election and cross checking made sure that tens of thousands that did show up were marked absent.

It’s worth investigating Russia but in my opinion, Russia may have hacked our election but it couldn’t have had nearly the effect that the GOP had with voter suppression.

Now we are stuck with a “useful idiot” that will be used to earn billionaires more cash.

The only drawback is that he may actually destroy the country in the process.

I hope the end justifies their means and we live long enough for a chance and vote him out of office.

Flashlight

A man and a woman started to have sex in the middle of a dark forest. After about 15 minutes of it, the man finally gets up and says, "Damn, I wish I had a flashlight!". The woman says, "Me too, you've been eating grass for the past ten minutes!"

Sexual Exhaustion

A teacher was wrapping up class, and started talking about tomorrow's final exam. He said there would be no excuses for not showing up tomorrow, barring a dire medical condition or an immediate family member's death. One smart ass, male student said, "What about extreme sexual exhaustion?", and the whole classroom burst into laughter.

After the laughter had subsided, the teacher glared at the student, and said, "Not an excuse, you can use your other hand to write."

A drunk gets up from the bar and heads for the bathroom. A few minutes later, a loud, blood curdling scream is heard from the bathroom. A few minutes after that, another loud scream reverberates through the bar. The bartender goes into the bathroom to investigate why the drunk is screaming. "What's all the screaming about in there? You're scaring the customers!"

"I'm just sitting here on the toilet and every time I try to flush, something comes up and squeezes the hell out of my balls."

With that, the bartender opens the door, looks in and says...

"You idiot!"

"You're sitting on the mop bucket!"

Car Shopping

A lady walks into a Nissan dealership. She browses around, spots the Top-of-the-line Nissan Pathfinder and walks over to inspect it. As she bends over to feel the fine leather upholstery, she inadvertently breaks Wind.

Very embarrassed, she looks around nervously to see if anyone has noticed her little accident and prays that a sales person doesn't pop up right now.

As she turns around, her worst nightmare materializes in the form of a salesman standing right behind her. Cool as a cucumber and displaying complete professionalism, the salesman greets the lady With, "Good day, Madame. How may we help you today?" Very uncomfortably, but hoping that the salesman may just not have been there at the time of her accident, she asks, "Sir, what is the price of this lovely vehicle?"

He answers, "Madam, if you farted just touching it, you are going to shit yourself when I tell you the price."

Materialistic Lawyer

A lawyer opened the door of his Nissan Z Coupe, when suddenly a car came along and hit the door, ripping it off completely. When the police arrived at the scene, the lawyer was complaining bitterly about the damage to his precious Nissan.

"Officer, look what they've done to my Nissanaaa!!!!", he whiningly said.

"You lawyers are so materialistic, you make me sick!!!" retorted the officer, "You're so worried about your stupid Nissan, that you didn't even notice that your left arm was ripped off!!!"

"Oh my god....", replied the lawyer, finally noticing the bloody left shoulder where his arm once was, "Where's my Rolex?"
